

Common Sidewalk Deficiencies

Tripping Hazards over 1/2"

Shown are the most common sidewalk deficiencies and the criteria established to determine if a particular section of sidewalk represents a safety hazard to pedestrians and which are subsequently marked for repair or replacement.

Tree Root Damage

Cracked or Broken up Sections

Deterioration of Sidewalk Surface

Open Joints Greater than 5/8"

Access Delaware
Let's get there together

Sidewalk sections marked with a WHITE dot are the property owner's responsibility to repair
Sidewalk sections marked with a BLUE dot are the City's responsibility to repair