

For Immediate Release:

April 5, 2018

Resident Needed for Historic Preservation Seat

DELAWARE – City of Delaware residents can apply for a volunteer position on the Historic Preservation Commission. The applicant must be a City of Delaware resident and an architect. It is preferable to own property or have a business interest in the historic district. Interested residents can email a letter of interest and background information to emccloskey@delawareohio.net by April 30. For additional information, contact the City Council clerk at 740-203-1013.

###