

For Immediate Release:

February 13, 2018

Some Refuse Collection Stops Shifting to New Days

DELAWARE – The City of Delaware is realigning some refuse collection routes to improve service and efficiency.

The following will begin the week of February 26:

These streets will be collected on TUESDAY instead of Monday:

- All of Blymer Street
- Fountain Avenue, between Sandusky and Union streets
- Heffner Street, between Sandusky and the turn to Union
- Lincoln Ave, from Sandusky to Mingo Park
- Sandusky Street, from Central Avenue north
- Union Street, from 98 N. Union Street north

These streets will be collected on TUESDAY instead of Wednesday:

- All of Eastwood Avenue
- All of Georgetown Drive
- Northwood Drive, off of Georgetown Drive
- Pennsylvania Avenue, between the railroad tracks and Grandview Avenue

These streets will be collected on TUESDAY instead of Thursday:

- Winter Street, between Sandusky and Elizabeth streets
- Washington Street, between William and Central
- Liberty Street, between William and Central
- Franklin Street, between William and Central
- All of Catherine Street
- Elizabeth St between William and Winter streets

These streets will be collected on THURSDAY instead of Friday:

- All of Spring Street
- Franklin Street, between William and Spring streets
- Washington Street, between William and Spring streets

Customers with questions can phone 740-203-1810 or email pwcs@delawareohio.net.

###