

For Immediate Release:
January 15, 2016

Mayor Offering Valentine's Day Wedding Ceremony

DELAWARE – Love will be in the air in Delaware on Valentine's Day, Sunday, February 14. Couples who wish to exchange wedding vows or renew vows can do so, with Mayor Carolyn Kay Riggle presiding over the mass ceremony.

Mayor Riggle will perform a simple, civil ceremony at 3:30 pm at the Women's City Club, 135 North Franklin Street. To take part, couples must register by emailing mkohler@delawareohio.net. Couples getting married must have a valid marriage license from the Delaware County Probate Court (740-833-2680). Couples renewing vows do not need a license.

In honor of the date – 2/14/2016 – the standard $50 wedding fee will be reduced to $20.16 per couple. The fee is payable at the event. Only cash in the exact amount will be accepted. Fees collected will support a Veterans' Plaza under construction at the National Guard Training Center adjacent to the Delaware Community Center YMCA, 1121 S. Houk Road.

###